AUGUST 2009

Looks like we have a good month ahead of us: Aug. 7,8 & 9 is the Legion camping trip at Lake Ridge R.V. Resort in Hillsville, Va. On the 17th the ALR is having a Spaghetti Dinner to raise money for the TRIAD FLIGHT OF HONOR. This is a project to send WWII veterans to the WWII Memorial in D.C. The 22nd, the American Legion Baseball Team will have a car was with hotdogs and hamburgers. Come out and support these kids, they are doing a lot with free publicity for our post. On the 29th our Ladies Auxiliary is having a 50's Party in the large hall. Ron Neely and his Mobile Juke Box will be the DJ.

Wayne Brown is out of the hospital and at home. I have visited and talked to him and he seems to be doing fine and in good spirits. Let's hope for a speedy recovery.

On Aug 20, we will have a new group meeting here. The Piedmont Triad Navy League will be holding their meetings on the 3rd Thursday of the month. Welcome Navy League.

Our condolences to Nick Whitecotton and family in the passing of his wife Betty.

Thanks to the Ladies Auxiliary, Cathy Burroughs and her son Chris for the wonderful landscaping job in front of the Post.

Jeff Leonard's girlfriend Sherry Barr is home recovering from surgery, and Wendie Lewis is home recovering from a stay in the hospital; keep them in our prayers for speedy recoveries.

There will be neither Joint Dinner Meeting nor a 40/8 Promenade in August

We have a great web site: Check it out at nclegion.org/post55.htm
