OCTOBER 2008

Due to economics, and the ever-increasing costs of everything, we have decided that the Monday dollar beer sales will be cancelled. I know that this will upset some folks, but we can see no alternative to doing it. With the cost of beer, gas food and just about every other thing, it just makes good sense. This is effective Oct. 1.

The yard sale was a success, even with the rain many people came out and it seemed everyone had a good time. Thank you Ladies Auxiliary, the supporting husbands and significant others.

The Homeless Veterans Cookout was a lot of fun and quite enjoyable. Larry Starling and Susan Temples, along with other girls and guys provided a great service to the folks. Also our own Billy Mitchell is back in town. Billy is in an assisted living place in Clemmons. Welcome home Billy.

Good news, the large hall air conditioning is back on line. We have a new unit on the roof. Thanks to Lewis Pleasants for his source.

Mark your calendars for a BIG and FUN day, FALL FESTIVAL, 1200-1900, October 25, here at the post. Bring the family, bring the kids, there will be games, dunking booth, jumping thingy's and other types of entertainment for all. Promises to be a good time for all ages. Come out and have a great time.

We now have an ATM in the canteen for your convenience.

We have a great web site: Check it out at nclegion.org/post55.htm
